

Parish Invocation: Father I love you, Jesus I thank you, Holy Spirit help us

St John's Catholic Parish

Brunswick Valley

"I am here among you as one who serves." Luke 22:27

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 3:13-17

When Jesus was baptised, the heavens were opened and the Spirit of God came upon him.

Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptised by John. John tried to dissuade him. 'It is I who need baptism from you,' he said 'and yet you come to me!' But Jesus replied, 'Leave it like this for the time being; it is fitting that we should, in this way, do all that righteousness demands.' At this, John gave in to him.

As soon as Jesus was baptised he came up from the water, and suddenly the heavens opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming down on him. A voice spoke from heaven, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on him.'

Reflection

'We are not made for a life where everything is taken for granted and static,' Pope Leo says, 'but for an existence that is constantly renewed through gift of self in love.'

Our baptismal calling is, after all, a call to action!

'There is a burning question in our hearts,' the Pope reflects, 'a need for truth that we cannot ignore, which leads us to ask ourselves: what is true happiness? What is the true meaning of life? What can free us from being trapped in meaninglessness, boredom and mediocrity?'

The Pope encourages us to recollect that 'the fullness of our existence does not depend on what we store up.' As we return from the holiday season to Ordinary Time, we may well reflect on this: Life is about more than possessions.

'We need to lift our eyes,' the Pope says, and 'realise that everything in the world has meaning only insofar as it serves to unite us to God and to our brothers and sisters in charity.'

We should, the Pope says, appreciate that 'fullness has to do with what we joyfully welcome and share.' Our lives are more fulsome when they are open to celebrating the gifts and serving the needs of others.

COMPASSIO - LENTEN PROGRAM 2026

This Lent, enter into the heart of compassion - to “suffer with” - a grace-filled invitation to stand with Christ and with one another. Let this beautifully designed, 76-page, full-colour companion guide you through daily reflections, Sunday Gospel readings and reflections, spiritual direction, prayers, and group discussion questions, all crafted to deepen your encounter with God’s mercy.

The daily reflections have been prayerfully written by 20 clergy, religious, and lay contributors from across Australia and beyond. Compassio offers rich insights that invite, challenge, and console - ideal for both individual prayer and group study. Whether journeying alone or in community, Compassio provides the tools to rediscover hope, solidarity, and the healing love of Christ.

The booklets are $10 each and can be purchased from the Parish office.
Please place orders by 20 January 2026

THE ROSARY

We live in a hectic world. But God wants to put things in order.

Lent is a special season to rededicate our lives to God, to invite him into the hectic parts of our soul, and to give him permission to put it all in order.

One of the most powerful ways to accomplish this is by praying the Rosary.

The Rosary is a meditative prayer that honours Mary and asks for her intercession.

When we pray the Rosary, we reflect on the mysteries from the Gospel:

the Joyful Mysteries,
the Glorious Mysteries,
the Sorrowful Mysteries, and the Luminous Mysteries.

You can pray the Rosary for a special intention. You can pray the Rosary to grow into a better person, employee, neighbour, citizen, and member of the human family. You can pray the Rosary to deepen your love and understanding of the Gospels. And it only takes about 20 minutes of your time!

The Rosary works. It’s a very powerful way to pray. There is just something about it that settles our hearts and minds. It puts everything in perspective and allows us to see things as they really are.

It reaches deep down into our souls and puts us at ease, creating a peace that is rare and beautiful.

Our next Rosary Team meeting will be held on the 2nd Saturday of February, time and location will be in the Bulletin.
